Entries 1 to 22

Bath Street, towards the west

- 1 Enjoy the Art Deco interior of Montagu Country Hotel, with something cold to drink in the beautiful garden or on the deck. Order a Bootlegger coffee at Feathers & Flatcaps.
- 2 Try a cocktail or mocktail at Feathers & Flatcaps. Don't overthink it, just sip and smile.
- 3 See the latest solo artist exhibition at Montagu Country Hotel, which features local artists and changes every two months. Free
- 4 Hire an arty Dutch bike from Flying Feet to explore our lovely town for R50 per hour. Up to R50
- 5 Join a fully guided Flying Feet bicycle town tour with friendly Marchelle, or book a walking or cycling ghost tour. Get prices from www.flyingfeet.co.za.
- 6 If you are too lazy to go out for dinner, order a lekker pizza, pasta or burger from the Burgundy Gherkin or The Purple Pickle. Friendly Ernest will deliver (call 071 161 8031).
- 7 Visit Montagu Local, a little shop run by two wacky women. It stocks local artisan products and fresh organic fruit and vegetables at 21 Bath Street.
- 8 While you are at Montagu Local, order one of the food baskets: a breakfast basket, braai box, snack platter or seafood platter, all filled with fresh, organic local produce.

A Bath Street house

- 9 Meet owner Jurie Wessels at THE Gallery, which specialises in carefully curated collectible contemporary art. You will find it at 21 Bath Street. Free
- 10 Check the daily specials at Mitchell's Pub & Grill in Bath Street, a favourite local hangout. Every town has a pub where the locals meet, so come for the stories.
- 11 Pick up a delicious wrap from Square Tomato in Bath Street, where owners Basil and Irene give you a friendly welcome among happy colours on the walls. Their new venue across the road from the Dutch Reformed Church is also worth a visit.
- 12 Take a photo at the Cat Crossing, opposite 28 Bath Street. Ask at the MATA tourism office for more information.
- 13 Ready for some stylish lifestyle shopping? Visit De Nagmaal next to Jonkmanshof in Bath Street.
- 14 Visit the Montagu Village Market in Euvrard Park every Saturday from 08:00 to 13:00. Entrance is free, so bring a shopping bag and some money to spend. You will be surprised how much fresh, delicious produce you can buy for R100 or less. Free

The Montagu Village Market in Euvrard Park

- 15 Visit the new home of the Montagu Arts Association at 24 Bath Street, opposite Euvrard Park, where member exhibitions change throughout the year.

- 16 Visit the Ibis Tree and spend some time watching and photographing the birds from the special deck at the Leidam.

Free

One block up Barry Street, towards the north

- 17 Pop into the Turning Leaves craft studio just up the road to see the art on exhibition and find out from owner Carol Cawood about the next craft course.

Piet Retief Street, towards the east

- 18 Look out for the Montagu Cares Market at the NG Church Hall in Piet Retief Street, held once every quarter. It is a chance to thrift and support a worthy local cause. A pop-up thrift shop sometimes appears at the Montagu Village Market or in front of Werner's Food Market, so there are always treasures and bargains to find.

One block up Bloem Street, towards the north

- 19 See the Ferrari model car collection at Squirrel's Corner, where cabinets display model Ferraris and other memorabilia and limited edition prints depict racing over the years. Admission is R50 per adult or teenager and R25 per child under 12.

Up to R50

Back to the Dutch Reformed Church and down Church Street, towards the south

- 20 Taste five beers at R62 Brewery in Church Street for R100, then stay for lunch once you have decided which one you prefer.

Toss a coin to decide: Long Street to the east or the west from Church Street?

Entries 23 to 43

Long Street, towards the east

- 23 Visit the Montagu Museum Old Mission Church and Joubert House for a taste of history and heritage. At the Old Mission Church you can learn about the local plants and herbs once used to treat every possible ailment. Entrance costs R20 per adult and R10 per child under 12, and includes a visit to both buildings. Up to R50
- 24 Enjoy the latest artisan and lifestyle shops at The Quarter, in the renovated KWV building on the corner of Kohler and Long Street.
- 25 Look for gifts with character and a story, such as the Percy Haskins wooden boxes, at Country Basket in The Quarter.
- 26 While you are there, browse the Montagu Bookshop and chat to booklover and owner Anne Reed about the large selection of classic second-hand and some new books. Entrance is free. Free
- 27 Meet pastry chef, baker and chocolatier Alfred Henry at The Pastry Place and watch a food artist at work. Taste at least one of the day's creative culinary offerings, if not everything on display.
- 28 No summer's day is complete without a taste of Alfred's artisan ice cream.
- 29 Catch the Wednesday and Friday movie nights at the Odeon. Tickets cost R50 per person and are available at Long Street Gallery. Up to R50
- 30 Eat at Munch, a quaint little restaurant at Brandy Hall, 45 Long Street, where the very friendly staff have a passion for food and make delicious roosterkoek.

- 31 Bring the kids for a sunny lunch or a run around the orchard at Die Boord. During apricot season you can even pick your own fruit in the orchard.

- 32 The new milkshake bar at Die Boord needs no selling: try it once and you will be hooked.

Back to Kohler Street, going north

- 33 Padel has arrived in Montagu, with a brand new court next to Huis van Velden, the high school hostel. The game is fast-paced, accessible and social.

- 34 To learn the game, join the beginners' training clinic every Saturday from 09:00 to 11:00. Message Lenka on 063 733 7584 to book.

- 35 Join padel Pilates every Thursday at 16:00, even if you do not play padel. Spots cost from R75, and you can WhatsApp 063 733 7584 to save yours. R51 to R100

- 36 The very popular Die Vetkoekie (see number 46 below) is also part of Kupenda Africa Gallery & Wine Bar at 4D Kohler Street. Try the food and wine pairings or come for the daily cake.

- 37 Ask for a copy of the Die Stasie & Konkelwyn monthly calendar. Something happens every day at Die Stasie in Kohler Street, from drinks at Konkelwyn to browsing and shopping at the Shed and the Depot, and the yard garden is a lovely place to relax or party.

Back to Church Street, where you tossed the coin, and then Long Street towards the west

- 38 Join the Friday milk tart mornings from 10:00 at Joubert House, part of the Montagu Museum. Tea or coffee with freshly baked milk tart costs R40. Up to R50

39  Rambling Rose still makes the best iced coffee. Enjoy the caffeine, then look at the daily menu and order a delectable lunch.

40  Hunt for antiques at Penny Farthing Antiques, on the corner of Long and Rose Street. Entrance is free.

41  Visit Montagu Nursery for all your garden treasures, or plan a special gardening weekend.

42  Bring the kids to the play park at Die Kloof Padstal, or let them wet their feet in the river under relaxed adult supervision. Entrance is free.

BluVines at Bloupunt Wines, Long Street

43  Sit under the pecan trees at Bloupunt Wines on Long Street, taste five Bloupunt wines for R100, and write it off as essential self-care.

Still in the town limits

60 Use the historical walk flyer from the MATA tourism office to guide you on a walkabout of our well-preserved heritage. Follow the numbers or follow your heart: the town offers plenty of photo moments, and the gardens supply a seasonal feast for the eyes.

61 Visit the local galleries (collect the art walk map at the MATA tourism office) and perhaps meet some of the artists: Hicks Gallery at 9 Joubert Street, Ibis Gallery at 16 Bath Street and the beautiful Kupenda Gallery at 4D Kohler Street. Entrance is free.

62 Visit the Fijn Botanicals shop and new restaurant at Kogman & Keisie, where all products are made on the farm with locally sourced natural and plant-based ingredients.

63 Fijn Botanicals now also offers spa treatments, with indigenous botanical skincare, amenities and perfumery made with Cape and Karoo fynbos and renosterbos plant extracts.

64 Order the Spanish hot chocolate at On the Deck Café at Kogman & Keisie, even if it is the only thing you order. It is a taste you will remember.

65 Follow the longest wine route all along Route 62.

66 Book a wine valley safari for some drinking without driving. It is not quite a R100 activity, but the extra fee gets you a lot more: you see more, taste more and drink more at an affordable price.

67 Enjoy the hikes in the mountains around Montagu, from the short Lovers Walk (free) and the Badskloof route (R64 for adults and R43 for under 18s) to the more challenging Bloupunt and Cogmanskloof trails at R85 per person. Visit the MATA tourism office at 27 Bath Street for more information and a copy of your own hiking map.

68 For a lovely view of Montagu and the Langeberg, walk north up Kohler Street to a short stretch of gravel road, then continue to the top for the spectacular view from Kanonkop.

69 Take a family hike up Aasvoëlkrans for a stupendous view over our valley.

70 Take advantage of the cycle routes around our towns, some more challenging than others. Pick up a cycling trails map at the MATA tourism office at 27 Bath Street.

71 Ride an authentic Karoo gravel route on the new Karoo Gravel Corridor. Grab the map at the MATA tourism office.

72 If you have not yet joined the monthly sunset fun run, walk or cycle on the Montagu trails, you are missing out on true Montagu magic. Start at the Montagu Bowls Club in Church Street. The R50 participation fee contributes to the maintenance of the trails.

73 Montagu is one of South Africa's rock climbing meccas. Hire a guide or climb on your own along the many routes.

74 Scramble up hundreds of easy or challenging summits along the Langeberg range, from the N1 to Tradouws Pass. If you need a mountain guide, call +27 (0)23 614 1895.

75 Use your phone or GPS to find geocaches within a 50 km radius of Montagu. Visit www.geocaching.com to start.

76 Check in with the Montagu Eco Club to find out about its regular excursions and educational events, such as slide presentations and talks by speakers on wildlife and environmental topics.

77 Attend the monthly Montagu Talks at the Odeon or Montagu Country Hotel. Check the MATA Facebook page or the events page at www.montagu-ashton.info/events/ for dates.

78 Book a Healing Hands massage at your home or guesthouse from R560 for one hour. Contact Lidia on 084 802 7031. Over R100

79 Offer to walk an SPCA dog and make a new four-legged friend while you enjoy nature and fresh air.

80 The Langeberg is home to numerous endemic and near-endemic bird species. Collect your birding flyer, with a list of 268 documented birds, at the MATA tourism office and see how many you can identify. Free

81 Connect with the Montagu Bird Spotters Group, or follow them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/montagubirdspotters.

82 Visit the beautiful Montagu Nature Garden and drop a donation in the honesty box at the entrance. By donation

83 Join the locals on a Tuesday for T&3 in the Montagu Nature Garden: tea or coffee with three eats, freshly prepared by the local ladies, for R40. Pop in between 09:00 and 12:00. Up to R50

84 Book a myofascial release with Jen on 082 413 9917 to ease those winter aches and pains.

Non-alcoholic options cost R40 and a kiddies' tasting costs R25. Up to R50
- 89 While you are there, take some photos of the locomotive, Class 14CBR engine number 2010, and read its story.
- 90 While you relax with the Platform 62 tastings, let the kids meet the resident chickens and baby chicks and play in the secure kiddies' play area.
- 91 Find a special gift for a loved one or yourself at Platform 62. Browse the art and photography gallery, which shows works by members of the Montagu Arts Association. Entrance is free. Free
- 92 Visit the nursery and choose from interesting succulents and plants for your home.

- 93 Treat yourself to farm-fresh meals from Chef Josh and his team at the Shed Eatery, and browse the farmstall.

Robertson and the Breede River valley

- 94 For the love of wine, ask the MATA tourism office about the love of wine packages, which appeal to all the senses.
- 95 Travel a little further and blend wine like a master at Zandvliet, the home of Shiraz.
- 96 Blend your own bottle of wine at Excelsior Wine Cellar and take your creation home for R100 a bottle. R51 to R100
- 97 Taste Viljoensdrift wine (R74 for four samples) and enjoy the peace and tranquillity only a river can offer. R51 to R100
- 98 Take a trip on the Viljoensdrift boat on the Breede River for R120 per adult and R50 per child under 12. Over R100
- 99 Every tree tells a story in the Van Loveren Gardens. Take a brochure and do a self-guided tour for free. Free
- 100 Learn more about wine on a cellar tour with a glass of bubbly at Van Loveren (R110), or taste their wide variety of wines (R75 for four samples). R51 to R100
- 101 Take the kids for their own juice pairing at Van Loveren: two samples and a kiddies' platter cost R75. Adults can choose from a variety of platters from R120. R51 to R100
- 102 Hike, bike or stroll through Vrolijkheid Nature Reserve, 15 km south of Robertson on the McGregor Road. Day visitors pay R50 per adult and R30 per child. Up to R50

McGregor

- 103 Find yourself on the road to nowhere and stroll into a nineteenth-century watercolour painting in the small town of McGregor, only 50 km from Montagu and still in the shade of the beautiful Langeberg.

- 104 McGregor Winery captures your heart even before you enter the town. Stop for a wine tasting at R40 per person or an ice cream pairing at R80 per person, and call 023 625 1741 for more information.

- 105 Visit the Donkey Sanctuary in McGregor, open Thursday to Sunday from 10:00 to 16:00. Entrance is free, and donations to support the donkeys are always welcome.

- 106 While you are there, buy some books from the well-stocked second-hand shop. All proceeds go to charity.

- 107 Enjoy a little local heritage at the McGregor Museum, where a donation is all you pay and the atmosphere of days gone by comes free.

- 108 Fabian's donkey cart rides introduce you to transport in McGregor the slow way, for R100 per adult and R80 per child.

- 109 Visit Tanagra Wine Farm in McGregor, where a boutique winery and distillery on the premises produce handcrafted wines from certified single vineyards as well as stylish grappa and eau de vie. Owners Robert and Anette lead a personal tasting: five wines cost R80 per person and a selection of five grappa and eau de vie costs R80 per person. Tanagra is open by appointment from Monday to Friday 10:00 to 16:00 and on Saturday 11:00 to 15:00, though you are welcome to pop in without notice when the gate is open. Call 023 625 1780 or 076 112 5490, or email tanagra@tanagra.co.za.

- 110 Head to the hills on the Fossil Hills Wine Walk, which explores the hidden treasure of McGregor. Contact nadia@fossilhills.co.za for more information.

- 111 Plan a proper hike with a sleep-over on the Boesmanskloof Hiking Trail, which connects Greyton and McGregor. Contact CapeNature on 023 625 1621 for reservations and enquiries.

- 112 There is always time for wine, so head to Lords Winery outside McGregor, where time stands still, and enjoy a tasting of five wines for R80 per person. Contact 023 625 1265.

Entries 113 to 122

Bonnievale and the R60

- 113 Visit Coffee and Company on Main Street in Bonnievale, right next to the Bonnievale tourism office, for speciality coffee and Belgian waffles that you cannot miss.
- 114 Book the "Captivated by Cap Classique" experience at Weltevrede Wine Estate in Bonnievale, or spoil yourself with the "Captivated by Chardonnay" underground cellar tour, or do both.
- 115 At Weltevrede Wine Estate you can also create your own Cap Classique: disgorge, add the dosage, cork and label your own bottle.
- 116 Treat yourself to Sunday lunch at Greenlands Farm Table on the R60, and meet Glen and Sara, the passionate couple behind this creative lifestyle space filled with treasures from their travels. Kids and pets are welcome.
- 117 While you are there, pop in at the Greenlands Heritage Shed, the new home of the Langeberg Veteran Tractor Club.

- 118 Try the pomegranate juice at Jan Harmsgat on the R60 for the purest of juices.

- 119 If you like a drive with cheese and wine, do not miss La Mont Cheese on the R60. A wine tasting of two wines with an assortment of cheese and salami costs R50, or you can stay for the cheese platter, which is enough for two or three people, at R205.

- 120 Enjoy a tafelbraai with your loved ones at La Mont Deli, where meat and cheese products travel fresh from the farm to your braai and then to your plate.

- 121 Wildebraam Berry Estate near Swellendam on the R60 is the best place for berry picking. Pick your own blackberries from mid-November to the end of December for an entry fee of about R25 per person, plus the cost of the berries you pick. Phone Natalie on +27 (0)81 327 0943 for more information.

- 122 Taste liqueurs for free at Wildebraam Berry Estate from Monday to Friday 08:00 to 17:00, on Saturday 09:00 to 16:00 and on Sunday 09:00 to 14:00.

Entries 123 to 136

The Talana Road and the R62

123 You deserve a treat, so take a drive on the Talana Road, the road less travelled that leads to Cadle Craft, where you can enjoy a brandy tasting.

124 Enjoy dinner at Galenia Estate, set among 600 ha of indigenous flora and an olive grove on the Langeberg slopes. The five-star estate is now open for dinner every night, and a shuttle collects you in town and brings you home.

125 Visit Guano Caves and the Animal and Bunny Farm: adults pay R70 and children under 12 years pay R50 for a day visit. Horse and pony rides cost R70.

R51 to R100

126 Try the new WildX quad bike excursions, now operating from Guano Caves. Contact 078 533 6958 for bookings or go to www.wildx.co.za for more information.

127 Test your archery skills at the new Archers of Eden at Glen Eden Farm, Ruigtevlei, on the R62. It costs R180 for children aged 7 to 12 and R200 for anyone older.

Over R100

128 Tahlia Farm is a proud Montagu establishment that distils its gin with a story, in both alcohol and alcohol-free versions. Join them for a tasting or a cheese platter by calling 076 201 5595, or pop in while travelling down the R62.

129 Mix your own gin at the new Gin Lab at Tahlia Farm. You start with gin and a selection of botanical extracts, then build your own blend, add ice, garnish and tonic, and sit back to enjoy your creation. You become the gin maker for R200 per person. The minimum is two guests and booking is essential.

Over R100

130 Stop at Rietrivier Winery, home of the original Montagu Muscadel. The recipe dates back to the 1930s, when the Brink Brothers made the first Montagu Muscadel.

131 Stay over at Ludick's Farm for the full experience of Poortjieskloof Dam. Two newly renovated and stylishly furnished cottages leave you spoilt for choice.

Barrydale

132 Something is always happening at The Karoo Art Hotel in Barrydale. Walk through this revamped hotel with its special vibe, look at the art or find out about the next live show.

133 Visit Die Langhuis in Barrydale, built in about 1865 and one of the oldest village houses still in existence. It welcomes travellers and has a shop you will never forget.

134 Order an out-of-this-world milkshake for R70 at Diesel and Cream in Barrydale, and pose with the classic cars or in the old-world diner.

R51 to R100

135 Meet the locals over a board game and enjoy artisanal eats at the Môreson market in Barrydale every Saturday.

136 A Sunday lunch at Barrydale Karoo Boutique Hotel costs R95, and the experience and the taste are worth much more. Take the trip from Montagu and spend a day in Barrydale, where treasures abound.

R51 to R100

Entries 137 to 143

137 Visit Langhoogte Farm, the Two Dam Sustainable Trout Farm, for a lesson in sustainable living and a taste of delicious trout. Contact Vivian on +27 (0)23 614 1517.

138 Catch trout at Two Dam Sustainable. Check the day visitor fee and the cost per kilogram of trout caught, because all fish caught must be taken home. Phone +27 (0)82 748 6448.

139 Visit Anni Krulkop's pink Krulkop Caravan in the Keisie Valley just outside Montagu, and let her share her crochet art with you.

140 The Protea Farm tractor trip to the top of the Langeberg is one of Montagu's oldest attractions and remains popular for the spectacular views from the mountain top. Book at the Activity Centre at 27 Bath Street, then sit back and enjoy the ride. The trip costs R260 per person.

141 Complete the Protea Farm tractor trip with a potjiekos lunch under the trees. Real food tastes better when cooked in nature, on an open fire and among friends. The lunch costs R260 per person.

142 Visit Oom Koos van die Groot Karoo at his deli on the R318 in the Koo. He is Montagu's very own YouTube star.

143 Unplug far, far away at the end of the road at a down-to-earth destination such as Simonskloof Mountain Retreat. Walk, breathe the fresh mountain air and appreciate nature at its most undiluted.
